

Henry P. Bell earned his BS degree from the University of Alabama and is a graduate of the Fordham University School of Law. He started his career with the law firm of Rumberger Kirk & Caldwell in Miami, Florida. He later worked as Assistant Federal Public Defender for nearly 6 years. Mr. Bell is a partner at Bell Rosquete Reyes Esteban, PLLC, focusing on the defense of the accused in both state and federal courts. He also handles both criminal and civil forfeiture matters and represents clients facing allegations of fraud and misconduct in civil litigation proceedings. Mr. Bell is a member of the Southern District of the Florida's Adhoc CJA Panel Selection Committee and serves as the CJA Panel Attorney Representative for the Southern District of Florida.