

Jennifer Marshall is a graduate of Tulane Law School and former assistant public defender in the 15th judicial circuit. Ms. Marshall has spent 20 years dedicated to defense, and one was of the pioneering lawyers in mental health court. Following the USSC decision in Miller v. Alabama, she began successfully representing juveniles in their resentencing hearings. Ms. Marshall currently works with the Office of Regional Conflict Counsel representing parents in dependency proceedings